

Meet Buddy the good ol' junkyard dog! He is a one and a half year old male Pitbull. He is scheduled to be neutered and is up to date on his vaccinations. Buddy started off life in a very poor situation. He lived on a chain in a dirt yard with no love, companionship, and usually no food or water. He escaped this unacceptable situation and was picked up while running blissfully towards his new future (which at this point was the shelter). Since coming to the shelter, Buddy has learned human and animal socialization skills. How to walk on a leash, not mess in his kennel, and to feel free to be himself. Even with all these new skills, he is at heart a junkyard dog.

He loves to lay in the sun, roll in the grass or dirt, gnaw on bones, and if there is an old tire nearby he will find a way to sprawl upon it! Buddy lives to please his people. He gives and receives affection freely and just wants to be part of a family.

If you can find it in your heart to be a part of Buddies new future please contact Susan 435-840-2740 or email helpsaveapet@hotmail.com. The Grantsville Police Department is located at 429 E. Main St. in Grantsville Utah and the animal shelter is at a separate location just 2 miles north east from there off Race Street which is a graveled unpaved road.

Our shelter is mainly staffed by volunteers and visits are scheduled by appointment between 9am - 8pm all week long. To visit, donate supplies or volunteer please call Susan at 435-840-2740. Please leave a message if she should be unavailable to answer you call immediately. She will return your call as soon as possible.

We are asking for a $80 donation (includes neuter cost $60) with this adoption. Donations are used to help care for the animals by providing food, veterinary care, toys, and other supplies as needed for their comfort. Thank you so very much for your help and support!
